The most economical as well as the most extravagant taste can be suited to a nicety in the trunk and suit department of the Peoples Warehouse. Trunks, suit cases, telescopes, grips, hand bags, cabin bags in the hand—most assortment ever shown in Pendleton, are now on display at the Peoples Warehouse.

For Sale—One block of land with good buildings and fine poultry raising plant. Large residence, 140 bearing fruit trees. Inquire of W. S. Perry at Rader's furniture store. Nearly the entire population of the reservation is scattered through the Blue mountain ranges hunting deer and bear and such other game as they can find. All lament the increasing scarcity of game.

There will be no dearth of amusement from Tuesday, October 25 until Saturday night, October 30, as during that time the Sisters of Charity, who conduct the St. Anthony's hospital, will give a fair in the new Bowman building for the benefit of the institution. The Sisters of St. Francis can be relied upon to make the evenings at the fair a pleasant entertainment, and don't forget the place, the new Bowman building, near the depot, and the time, Tuesday, and every evening of the week, including Saturday.

Red Men Social. Umaholls Tribe No. 28, Improved Order of Red Men, will give a social dance at Hendricks' hall tomorrow evening, to which all Red Men and their ladies and the Degree of Pocahontas are invited to attend. Light refreshments will be served.

CALL FOR ELECTIONS.

County Clerk Sends Out Notices to Precincts to Take a Prohibition Vote.

County Clerk Frank Saling is sending out notices of the election to be held November 8 to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in Umatilla county as a whole and in certain subdivisions.

The precincts in which the matter will be voted upon are: Umatilla, Echo, Prospect, Holdman, Juniper, Vansycle, Helix, Valley, Cottonwood, North Milton, South Milton, Weston, East Weston, North Athena, South Athena, Adams, Mountain, Ruddock, Encampment, Bingham Springs, McKay, Pilot Rock, Vinson, Willow Springs, Hogue, Alba, Ukiah and Gilliland.

Arrivals From Los Angeles.

T. C. Ried, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at Adams, with his wife, came down yesterday to meet here Mr. Ried's brother, Charles R. Ried, of Los Angeles, and his wife and six children. This was the first meeting of the brothers in many years. The latter comes with the intention and expectation of investing in this country and locating permanently. At the same time they will remain here for the winter, and if the spring finds them with their present intentions, they will make their home here, or in this vicinity.

A Beautiful Voice.

Those who attended the Baptist church services last evening had the pleasure of listening to a solo by Miss Myrtine Fraker. Miss Fraker's rich and mellow contralto is peculiarly adapted to sacred music. It is characterized by a wide range that is reached without apparent effort, and what is rarer, is a wide range reached without absurd loudness on the one hand or diminuendo that has an artificial effect, on the other hand. Her expression of choice, and articulation perfect.

O. R. & N. Promotions.

W. C. Diller, who has been O. R. & N. agent at Walla Walla, has been promoted to be agent for the same company at Spokane, and Tom Scallier, who has been cashier at Walla Walla is the O. R. & N. offices, has been promoted to be agent at that place.

Refurnishing His Residence.

Joseph Stockman, who lately bought property on the north side, and moved to town for the purpose of sending his children to school, has completely equipped his home with new furniture.

Try to pay $15 for your suit, if you can; it gives you better tailoring all over, and a better variety.

Not that the $10 and $12 suits aren't good—thy're better than most suits at the price—but it pays to get as good a suit as you can afford.

A man put on one of our $15 suits the other day and the first friend he met asked, "Where did you get it made?"

You really cannot tell our ready-made clothing from custom-made.

Attention to details in suit-making does the business. We're ready for you any day.
